

WESTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE

U. S. of America)) case #: 1:15cr10018-5JDB vs)) Judge Daniel Breem Amy Junior))

MOTION TO AMEND JUDGEMENT & COMMITMENT ORDER

Now comes a motion, from Any Junior, pro se, moving the Court to consider issuing an amended J & C to reflect the concurrent sentence that was received. REC reflect RECEIVED BY

APR 1 2019

Thomas M. Gould, Clerk
U.S. District Court
W^r of TN, Jackson
2015.

This defendant was picked up by the feds March 2015.

I was in custody since September 29, 2014 I have never left custody of prison. The feds sentenced me to 120 months, running concurrent with my state sentence. I was given 222 jail credit days. My current outdate is April 2024.

My sentence imposed from the state was 8 yrs. and 2 years. I know that this is complicated. I would like for the Courts to adjust my time to reflect the state sentence that is concurrent, which would call for a downward adjustment, to 6 years, or 72 months.

Sincerely,

Amy Junior, pro se
27334-076

Amber Johnson 3/26/2019